Ogden, Sunday, Aug. 4.

Lightning Strikes in Two Places and Heavy Rain Floods the Streets.

The second severe electrical storm to visit Ogden in less than twelve hours arrived about 11 o'clock yesterday for Tuesday, Aug. 6. morning and made things interesting during its short duration. The storm was heralded by a blinding flash of lightning and a heavy peal of thunder. The lightning struck a tree near the corner of Twenty-sixth street and Lincoln avenue, and tore a part of the bark from the tree. People in the neighborhood of where the lightning struck experienced heavy vibrations of the houses. Following the peal of thunder came a heavy downpour that soon filled the gutters throughout the business portion of the city to over-

On Twenty-fifth street the lightning struck the wires of the Utah Light & Railway company. Although the damage was slight, the system was put out of commission for a short time. At the power house one of the transformers was slightly damaged. The same storm shifted north to the Bear river station of the same company and out of four transformers three were in-

A bolt of lightning struck the wires near the city jail, lighted the lamps in the jail and for a time played peeka-boo around the steel cells with reports as loud as pistol shots. The prisoners were somewhat terrified, but none of them suffered from shock

FORGER GETS AWAY.

Clever Fraud Worked on a Nevada Bank.

A clever forgery came to light yesterday through a draft drawn on the First National bank of Winnemucca, draft was for $437, and was made out in the name fo James Wilson.

Wilson came to Ogden more than a month ago and engaged a room at the apartment house of Oscar Peterson on Twenty-fourth street. He created a good impression and informed the proprietor that he was awaiting a draft from Nevada. In due time the draft put in an appearance, and Wilson asked Peterson to go to the First National bank and identify him. Peterson accommodated the fellow and endorsed the draft for him. A short time after receiving the money Wilson went to Salt Lake and has since disappeared. The draft was forwarded to the Nevada bank and paid, thus releasing both Peterson and the local bank from liability. It was not until some time later that the draft was discovered to be a clever forgery. The loss falls upon the Winnemucca
